

ARTIST

ROB TURNOVER

7" TITLE

YOU REALLY GOT ME

RELEASE DATE

tbc

DISTRIBUTION

INTERGROOVE

FORMAT

7"

CATALOGUE NO

ANGST 001-1

BARCODE

69372317167

TRACKLISTING

- A1. 'You Really Got Me'
Rob Turnover feat. Gwendolyn Rich
- B2. 'You Really Got Me'
Rob Turnover feat. U

WHAT THE HECK?

AS: "Hello my name is ANGORA STEEL and i'm a record label. My hobbies are Punk/Rock, Freak/Pop & NY Disco/Punk. I'm new here and I hope we can spend some time together because 'you really got me' and I like you... maybe we...? Ohh by the way, say hello to my first baby ANGST 001-1, but be careful it's a monster!"

'You really got me'

Desperate for a hit in 1964, an obscure band named the Kinks slashed up a cheap guitar amp with a razor blade. When the Kinks released "You Really Got Me" in their native England on August 4, 1964, it was a classic make-or-break moment. Ray Davies had composed "You Really Got Me" in the front room of his parents' house in Fortis Green, with help from his brother. They wanted the song to be the kind of showstopper that would make audiences dance and go wild, and set out to make it repetitive, "like an African tribal chant." And as we know history - their wish came true.

The reactivation thing.

By covering the Kinks 'You really got me' Rob Turnover did a really good job. He recorded everything new even more instruments and still kept the originals trashy atmosphere. The sound is much fresher and kicks ass, he added a little electronic flavor which is coming up slightly in the middle of each side. He invited Gwendolyn Rich to put her voice on the A-side-version and this is sexy as sex can be. Gwendolyn is a swiss well known model and actor with a classical trained voice. Right now, she is "The Swiss Underground Star" who really got the tracks spirit.

On the B-Side "U" aka. Stefanie Keller who is the singer of the Live-project "Minus 8 Plus Band" gave the track the final frontier. She lived on year in Brasil, maybe that's why she comes on so strong on this tune. It's sharp as a swiss army knife and goes down like good brasilian caipirinha. Real delicious!

This is Angora Steel...expect more Punk-stuff from Newcomer's, Beat Kings and other Compost Super Stars like Minus 8!

FURTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED?Rob Turnover.

Actually he is someone we all know but otherwise (after listening to this record) we will see him in a different pair of shoes and maybe a new haircut? Rob Turnover is the alter ego of legendary Jazz / Downbeat / D&B-Producer "Minus 8" from Switzerland, who lately found back to his musical roots like Rock, Metal, Punk, Electro and gave them a little reactivation on this 7".